DETAILS Within about 20 minutes of flight, the flight attendants in the back informed me about the situation of the [redacted]. They told me that they felt uncomfortable, and that we should keep our eyes open and watch out. When I made my trash run, to keep my eyes open, I saw [redacted]. [redacted] I personally went up to the cockpit and told the captain because the situation made all of us feel uncomfortable. In the meantime, while I was up there, [redacted] noticed [redacted] and came up to the cockpit and told the captain. The captain asked [redacted] to separate [redacted]. After that, I stayed in the front of the cabin and did not see or talk to them.

DETAILS I was working Flight #2067 RDU-LAS 3/28/19, when I noticed two passengers being moved from the exit row to another row due to one passenger being a minor. They were originally seated in 13D & 13E and moved to 17E & F. I assumed by the look of the younger passenger that he had been moved due to a language barrier, but FA [redacted] said it was due to age, passenger stated he was only [redacted]

The passenger did not look [redacted] and the two passengers together gave me uneasy feeling so I kept an eye on them. Shortly after takeoff, during service, the [redacted] was sleeping so I asked [redacted] if he wanted anything to eat or drink and he very anxiously shook his head no, without speaking. I voiced my concerns to the other FA's, at which point we decided to speak
